Commissioner Lary requested the following be in the minutes, “I know this is sort of unrelated so I’ll make this brief, but just as someone who loves liberty and freedom, I’m deeply concerned about what’s going on in Hong Kong and disappointed in all sides, I’ll be healthy bipartisan, that we’re more worried about our economy than we are about freedom in Hong Kong and protestors getting the living daylights beaten out of them by a socialist, communist, progressive regime, and it’s sad. I’m a nobody, I’m just a Commissioner but I really wish that more important people, some senators speak out and I really wish the top guy would speak out a bit more. I support freedom and I know a number of people do as well and it’s sad to see.”

Commissioners wished the staff a Happy Thanksgiving.
